Today In Washington

WASHINGTON-Some press dispatches within the last few days, in reporting the news about a news brief filed in the Supreme Court by the attorney general, have given a misleading impression to the American people by implying that President Eisenhower has been or is now at odds with the Department of Justice in the handling of security cases.

What has been quoted to support such an alleged divergence of view was a speech made by the President on November 23, 1953, in which he said something about "the right to meet your accuser face to face." While this comment-which obviously referred to court proceedings and not to the discretionary powers exercised by the government in hiring and firing employees-was resurrected by some of ganization of theorists. > At the press conference, which occurred on Dec. 2, 1953, Mr. Eisenhower, replying to a direct question about this same speech, said there was one point which he must make clear, namely that employment in the federal government is not a right of citizenship but a privilege. He added tools of education. And, of course, to that if there is real justifiable belief and conviction that a person is a security risk, you cannot keep him in a delicate position and in certain instances probably couldn't keep such persons at all. The President emphasized that there is a difference between determining whether or not a man should work for the federal government and charging anyone with a heinous crime

A DIFFERENCE

It was clear that Mr. Eisenhower was differentiating in the traditional way between a criminal court proceeding and a personnel inquiry in which the government decides whether to hire or fire an employe. The applicant or the employe does not have to be "proved" a security risk. It is necessary only for the government to be convinced of his unreliability or unsuitability by reason of his back-

The issue as to the rights of the individual employe to convert a personnel inquiry into a court proceeding is coming up for decision soon in the Supreme Court of the United States. Already extensive briefs have been filed by both sides in a test case involving a college professor who was not cleared for service as a consultant to the government on account of alleged connections with Communists and was declared ineligible on security grounds. The

By PETER EDSON (NEA Washington Correspondent)

WASHINGTON-(NEA) - It was dramatic session of the House of Representatives when President Eisenhower sent up his special "Dear Joe" letter to Republican leader Martin of Massachusetts, appealing for passage of the administration's foreign trade program. Representative Martin spoke on it, and Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas whipped his Democrats into line to obtain passage.

But just after the President's letter had been read, Rep. Cleveland M. Bailey (D., W. Va.) obtained the floor.

"It was nice to listen to the very excellent reading by the minority leader of the letter from our President," commented Bailey. "But he cannot be too much concerned about this matter because the news ticker just now carried the information that he had gone out to the Burning Tree Club to play golf. While my Democratic friends are pleading and bleeding for him, he is playing golf."

AT THE START of this year's series of atomic-weapon tests in Nevada, there were several long delays because of bad weather. This meant that some of the greatest mathematicians in the country were forced to sit around with not much

To kill time, one of them suggested that they try to figure out the mathematical odds against the players of black jack, one of the popular indoor sports at nearby Las Vegas—the country's biggest legalized gambling center.

After several days of working on this fascinating problem, they came up with a system which they figured would let the players break even-perhaps even win. As the rains continued, a research task force rushed over to a gambling lab, to conduct their experiment—purely in the interest of science, of course. Somehow, the basic data seemed to be in error. The system just didn't work. The scientists lost their shirts.

AIR FORCE SECRETARY Harold E. Talbott and Secretary of the Navy Charles S. Thomas were themselves largely responsible for the House Armed Services investigating subcommittee decision to abolish closed hearings, unless national defense secrets were actually involved.

When the investigation of the Spanish Air Bases came before the committee, the two secretaries demanded closed hearings. Rep. F. Edward Hebert (D., La.) chairman of the investigating subcommittee wanted to know why. They said their statements contained classified material. Representative Hebert asked them to show him what in their statements was secret. Secretary Talbott's testimony was found to contain nothing secret. Secretary Talbott's testimony was found to contain nothing secret. Secretary Thomas took three sentences out of a 16-page statement. Then the hearing was opened up to press and public.

Subsequently, the Hebert subcommittee passed a rule that all its hearings would be open unless witnesses showed 24 hours in advance, that they had national defense material to present or that unwarranted injury would be caused to any individual.

PRESENT INDICATIONS are that the new Republican public works program which President Eisenhower talked about in his economic report as a cushion against unemployment, will not be financed by direct U. S. government appropriations.

Instead, indirect methods of financing will be used, such as are now planned for hospital construction.

here's even more to Chevrolet styling than meets the eye!

This is beauty with a bonus . . . for Chevrolet styling is designed to add safety and comfort while you drive, and to return greater value when you trade.

Truly modern lines are shaped by usefulness. You can see what we mean in the deep crystal curve of Chevrolet's Sweep-Sight windshield . . . a dramatic style note, certainly, but one that stems from the need for wider, safer vision. Or take high-set taillightsthey add to the impressive length of line . . . but they are up where they can be seen for safety's sake.

The smart louvers across the hood aren't just decoration . . . they mark the intake for the High-Level ventilation system for cleaner, fresher air. And the whole shape of the body-its lowness, the dipped belt line-is merely a reflection of a lowered center of gravity, the added stability.

This is truly functional styling that serves you better every mile, and preserves its value against the distant day when you trade. This is Body by Fisher -another Chevrolet exclusive in the low-price field. Come in and let us demonstrate that this new Chevrolet is just as exciting to drive as to look at!

THE ESCANABA POWER PROBLEM

This ad is sponsored by your city government to bring the facts to you — facts that may have an important bearing on the solution to the Escanaba Power problem. Send your questions to the City Manager and answers based on fact will appear in

The Question:

Why hasn't the City laid aside money each year for the building of a new generating plant?

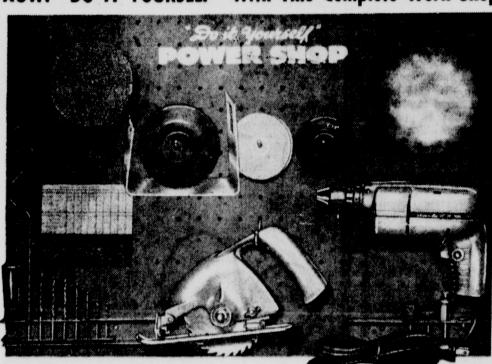

The Answer:

Each year the Electric Utility makes a provision for retirement of plant and equipment in its budget of expenses. This amounts to approximately $36,000, or slightly more than 4% of the value of the system.

This money, and any unexpended surplus, could be set aside by the City Council for a new generating plant. However, there has always been the feeling of City Councils in the past, that each generation of people should pay for its own needs and not have the increased burden of paying for a plant that will be used in future years. In the past, money for retirement of facilities has been used to help defray the cost of new improvements to the electric system, and unexpended surplus money has been turned over to the general fund, thereby reducing taxes in the same amount.

North's answer was on the vehement side. "You could have doubled two diamonds - that's what! How was I to know that we had any play for a club game? You would have bid exactly as you did with seven clubs to the ace-queen-jack and nothing else." South protested that a vulnershowed his own lack of skill, not only by his actual bidding but by his conversation. It was vitaljust as North indicated—that South do something really aggressive with a hand as good as his, and surely the two-club and three-club bids did not measure up to this need. Particularly since he was void of North's suit, South should have been very glad to double the two-diamond call, whether the opponents were or were not vulnerable; and even though North-South missed their vulnerable game, they would have lected no fewer than 12 tricks, | collected plenty of compensation.

Ashley Crew Is Summoned

Six Manistique men this week left for Chicago to report aboard the Hutchinson company's lake boat, the Ashley, to fit the vessel for the shipping season.

The Ashley's main run is from Port Inland, near Manistique to Indiana Harbor, carrying stone, but she also docks at other ports. Her first run is reported scheduled the first of April.

Those leaving were John and Andrew Selling, John Tiglas, James Talbot, Lyle Charron and Robert Carney. All work in the after end of the vessel.

Eight other Manistique men. who work in the forward end of the Ashley, expect to be called within the next week or two. They are Carl Larson, Donald LaBrasseur, George Rubick, Paul Schneider, John Milavec, Martin Selling, Russell Jackson and ers, winners of the U. P. debate William Jessick.

Dog Owners Are Asked To Help Protect Deer

The Michigan Conservation department today appealed to all dog owners in rural areas to keep their animals in check during the next few weeks to prevent unnecessary killing of deer.

"This is the season when dogs running wild do untold damage to our deer." E. C. Ruecker, of Newberry, district supervisor for the department pointed out. The snow has settled and makes good traveling for dogs, but poor traveling for deer, he stated, adding that does now are heavy with fawn and cannot run far. The Conservation official observed that any dog with much of a hunting instinct delights in getting together with other dogs and chasing and killing deer In the present snow condition, dogs can catch and kill a deer in a very short time, he said. Dogs kill for the fun of so doing and eat very little of the flesh, Ruecker said. Any breed of dog can and will engage in this sport, he added, but collies and mixed breeds appear to be the worst offenders, However, dogs seldom run alone to kill deer, but usually do so in pairs.

FARMERS DON'T RECKON with real horsepower any more - a tractor can do the job better. Today's farm is an open-air factory with a specialized machine for every bask. And America's mechanized farming produces more food . . . and better food ... than any other country in the world.

But to mass produce the millions of tractors, plows, combines, pickers, cultivators that are found on modern farms, manufacturers must be able to sell them by the millions. Only by advertising can a manufacturer talk to millions of farmers at the same time.

ADVERTISING TELLS the story of new farm machinery and equipment - and helps sell it. The more it sells, the more must be made - keeping the production lines and the jobs going. The result: newer, better farm machinery at prices more farmers can afford to pay. Advertising helped make the difference - in farming, and in our American way of life.

PARIS (A) -Of 50,000 Chinese living in North Viet Nam when the Geneva armistice was signed, 35,000 have been evacuated to the non-Communist south, the French Press Agency reported.

VIENNA (A) - Communist Romania has followed the example of Russia and other East European satellites and formally ended the state of war with Germany. The Bucharest radio said the action was taken Monday by the Romanian Parliament.

LONDON (A) -Pravda warned Iran again that under existing treaties with the Soviet Union, the Tehran government cannot allow foreign bases or troops on its territory. A Moscow radio broadcast said the Soviet Communist party newspaper reported that "numerous American advisers who are in Iran" are attempting to draw that country "into a military

Grand Marais

Meldrum Rites

GRAND MARAIS-A solemn high mass was held Saturday at the Holy Rosary Church of Grand Marais for Mrs. Raymond Meldrum with the Rev Roland Dion as celebrant, the Rev. Girard La-Mothe, deacon, and the Rev. Pernaski, sub-deacon. Mrs. Parmer Masse assisted the choir in the singing of the mass. Mrs. Rena Ahlgrim was the or-

Mrs. Meldrum, the former Mary Catherine Petitpren, was born in Grand Marais March 25, 1890, and was the first child whose baptism is recorded at Holy Rosary Church. She was a graduate of the Grand Marais High School and moved with her family later to Anchorville, Mich., where she married Raymond Meldrum in 1919. She returned to Grand Marais in 1927. She was an active member of the St. Anne's Guild of the Holy Rosary Church, a member of the Grand Marais Women's Club many years and the Ladies' Auxiliary of the VFW.

Mrs. Meldrum, who had been in failing health the past few years and died March 2 at St. Mary's Hospital in Marquette following a short illness, is survived by her husband, Raymond, one son, Harold of Grand Marais, six sisters, Mrs Joseph Bielman, Mrs. Seva Sharrow, Mrs. Howard Paye, Mrs. George Bader, Mrs. Harry Dowler and Mrs. Joseph LaVigne of Detroit, two brothers, Henry Petitpren of Caseville and Flavian Petitpren of Mt. Clemens and three grandchildren.

Charles Beaulieu of Newberry directed the funeral. Pallbearers were Ora Endress, Herman Petitpren, Burton Masse, Donald Hendrick, Herman Wood and Robert Masse. Out of town relatives attending the funeral were Henry Petitpren, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Paye, Mr. and Mrs. Seva Sharrow and children, Sharon and Jack, Mr. and Mrs. George Bader, Mrs. Joseph Bielman, Mrs Max Schalk and Mrs. Edward Graebert of East Detroit, Clayton Graebert of Fair Haven and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Meldrum and Harmon Meldrum

Burial was made in the Catholic Cemetery of Grand Marais.
